Demand 9.1.0

*Remittance for year 2170
6-4-0*

Dear Sir,

A section of the public are very difficult to deal with as regards their Income Tax. Your friend Mr. Jacobs is apparently a case in point. Mr. Barham must have served upon him a Demand Note about Christmas time as to duties due and payable on or before the 1st January. Subsequent personal and written reminders ought in the ordinary course to have followed and at the 31st March Mr. Barham is called upon to close his accounts, and posts Mr. Jacobs as a defaulter. On a default letter being issued from this office Mr. Jacobs wakes up and discovers that the oft-mentioned sum is incorrect. Of course, a smart town Collector with less local prejudice would have arranged to distrain for the arrears before the end of March.

Anyhow I have done what I can to clear Mr. Jacobs' taxes in accordance with your very clear statement of the matter and enclose herewith the Demand Note.

H.K. Day, Esq.,
Marshcombe,
BRADING. I.W.

Yours faithfully,

Wignall
