

28.11.20

Duffon
Copy

At a meeting of the Trustees held on 25th inst. I was instructed to draw your attention to the deplorable condition of the pavement, <sup>(East Side)</sup> in the High St. (East Side) and to express the hope that this matter will receive due attention.

In many places in the pavement there are puddles of water and at this very wet season of the year it is most uncomfortable.