Dear Sir

Having been appointed a Boundary Commissioner for the Redistribution Bill I find it will be impossible for me to hold the Inquiry as arranged on January 13th.

I have intimated to the Privy Council office that if the Inquiry is considered urgent some other gentleman had better be appointed if they seemed to think that that better post here it. until the end of the Commission.

The Commission is supposed to sit ~~at~~ for 2 months it may be the end of February perhaps before I should be free.

If the Corporation desire to hasten the Inquiry it could be well I think for you to address a letter to the Clerk of the Council, Whitehall on the matter.

Whenever I ask to be seeds the endeavor to arrange a date.

Yours faithfully

J. H. W. Adams
