

in/

Cambrian House Offices,
Ryde, I of W.

29th Nov^r 1880

Dear Sir

Reading Bailiffs

I should have imagined that as you demanded in so peremptory a tone payment of money you would at least be able to tell me by what authority the demand is made without having to refer to your clients and it therefore shows me that my instructions in the matter are correct.

Yours faithfully

J. A. New Esq^r

J. A. New Esq^r
Steward