WOMEN'S INSTITUTE PRESENT MUSICAL COMEDY

The first entertainment to be given in Brading Town Hall since it was derequisitioned by the military, the musical comedy "King of Kalamazoo" was presented with much success by members of the Women's Institute last night (Wednesday).

Strongly reminiscent of pantomime in its development and general structure, the play was liberally punctuated with popular songs, several of them cleverly adapted to the requirements of the plot, and there were topical allusions to points, coupons, pay-as-you-earn, etc. Alby produced by Mrs. Shand, whose professional experience of stage work was evidenced particularly in her dual portrayal of Picadilly Willie, leader of an amusing trio of conspirators, and Black Peter, ruthless captain of a pirate ship. Commendable performances were also given by Mrs. Joyner as the King of Kalamazoo, Mr. A. G. Joyner as the Lord Chamberlain, Mrs. Finlay as Prince Dashwood Khan of Bazookistan, and Mrs. Robson as Princess Angeline, the last-named contributing a charming solo dance with attractive lighting effects.

An outstanding feature was the singing, in which a strong lead was given by Mrs. Finlay and Mrs. C. W. Corbett (a maid of honour), and the choruses were most pleasingly rendered. The scenery and lighting (unusually elaborate for Brading) reflected great credit on Mr. J. Fowler (whose popular characterisation of "Willum" the old country man, was happily interpolated in the play), and his assistants, Messrs. A. and B. Walters; and Mrs. F. A. Simmonds contributed much to the success of the effort with her sympathetic accompaniment at the piano.

In addition to those already mentioned, parts were effectively sustained by Mesdames Wright, Wheeler, Brett, Dunn, Herbert, Berry, Shaw, Johnson, Sears, the Misses P. Guy, D. Squibb, Jacobs, V. Sears, Jill Robson, Susan Jacobs, V. Margaret Brett. Prior to the Corbett and pleasure was derived from the play much pleasure was derived from an amusing trio of conspirators, and Black Peter, ruthless captain of a pirate ship. Commendable performances were also given by Mrs. Joyner as the King of Kalamazoo, Mr. A. G. Joyner as the Lord Chamberlain, Mrs. Finlay as Prince Dashwood Khan of Bazookistan, and Mrs. Robson as Princess Angeline, the last-named contributing a charming solo dance with attractive lighting effects.

Pantomime.—Local inhabitants were treated to an admirable production on Wednesday of the pantomime "Mother Goose" by the members of the Women's Institute. The Town Hall was filled with a large and happy audience, including as many adults as young people. The stage management by Mrs. Shand was well directed, and the lighting effects, in the charge of Mr. Fowler, enhanced the gay and varied hues of the costumes, which were expertly made by members of the institute. The diction of the performers was clear throughout, and the singing most creditable. The chief characters of Mother Goose and Priscilla the goose were excellently played by Mrs. Joyner and six-year-old Pearl Ireland. Miss P. Guy as "Jack" impressed with her singing and "Jill" (Mrs. Gallop) combined with the village beau "Colin" (Mrs. Finlay) in several pretty duets. Miss Jill Robson was a charming fairy queen who battled courageously against a fearsome demon king, convincingly played by Mrs. Shand. Mr. Joyner as the squire and park-keeper added much humour to the show, and in this he was admirably supported by Mesdames Wheeler and Brett as cross-talk comics. Mrs. Robson ("Lizzie"), Miss Mildred Sears (the clown and also "King of Goose-land"), Miss J. Jacobs (chef), and Mrs. Wright ("Baroness Hang-over") also gave performances of a high standard. Mrs. Berry struck an original note as chief of the "Geesetapo," and the chorus of villagers, guests, and fairies completed the cast. Additional attractions were a ballet and tap dancing display by Miss Jill Hunter and a violin solo by Mrs. Stacey. The pianist was Mrs. Hamblett. Further successful performances were given on Thursday and Friday.

and some songs such as "The man who broke the bank at Monte Carlo" and "In the two-bellied" and the ever popular "There's a good one" and with many modern numbers in the musical score of the pastormine "Sleeping Beauty" which the Reading Women's Institute presented with great success at the Town Hall last week evening, with delightful performances by a troupe of little girls and clever specialties by Miss Jill Hunter (Principal, Sandown School of Dancing), who starred herself with her lovely tap number "Ballin' the Jack," and by Miss Branson and Janet Taylor (Ease Wigby School of Dancing) who showed strong features of a lengthy and interesting show.

The title role was played with vivacious spirit by Mrs. Robson, with Miss Jill Robson's charming Fairy Queen and Mrs. Finlay a delicious Prince, Flaxford, whose singing was a strong point. Mr. Eric Burton, as the Lord Chamberlain, added considerably to the vocal side of the entertainment with his rich bass and with Mrs. Jordan as a skittish Mother Evebane (the "body charwoman"), was responsible for much of the comic relief, but Mr. A. E. Jordan was truly humorous as the King of Puffbluff, and others not relating much to the lighter side were Mrs. Wheeler (Tilly, the nurse) and Mrs. Gray (Bertha), a comical "spin" was reserved for the ever popular Reading man, "William" played with his customary gusto by Mr. Jack Bowler, who was responsible for the simple but effective settings and the attractive lighting.

The confident and enthusiastic performances of two little girls, K. Himmels and P. Irving, as the pages Pip and Poo, completely captivated all who saw the show and their little roles (10 years later) were pleasingly presented by Mrs. Burton and Mrs. P. Gray, the latter of whom had portrayed the wicked Fairy Nerissa with some menace. Miss M. Scott, as Toot (the Prince's equerry) and Mrs. Webb (an old crone) did well in their appearances, and Mrs. Wright with little to do but look regal, made an impressive Queen of Puffbluff. Besides producing with her usual capability and thoroughness, Mrs. K. Shand appeared with outstanding success as "Father Time," an important character providing excellent observations between the acts, which covered a period of 1,000 years, and Mrs. Himmels also charged an engaging task with great pathos and to accompaniment.

Others, taking part were: Mesdames Berry, Johnson, Sears, Shaw, Wray, de Winton, R., and E. Ponting, P. Saunders, V. Eade, C. Cox, E., and C. Hill, P. Burton, J. Barron, J. Barlow, C. Goodland, S. Walker, J. Wray and M. Brown. Miss Jill Hunter was responsible for running four adult members of the cast in a smart specialty tap dance in the second act, in addition to her own turn, and the pupils of the Ease Wigby School of Dancing appeared by permission of Miss Betty Major (principal). The pastormine was staged on Monday night in aid of the W.I. Headquarters Fund.

ROAD SAFETY IN BRADING

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE ASK FOR URGENT ACTION

A meeting of the I.W. Joint Road Safety Committee at the County Hall, Newport, on Thursday week, considered an eight-point memorandum from Brading Women's Institute concerning danger spots in the village. Capt. G. W. Wilkins, a representative for Brading on the County Council and a member of the Road Safety Committee, described the village as a proper little death trap. He added that owing to limited finance, improvements had to be undertaken in stages. Representatives of the police and county roads department promised to look into suggestions which did not involve capital expenditure. Mr. H. Rogers (chairman) presided.

The letter from the Women's Institute referred to a meeting on October 20th, when the urgent question of road safety in Brading was discussed, and it was unanimously agreed to submit recommendations regarding New Road, Mall Road, and the cross roads at Bull Ring and Yarbridge—all of which were considered to be very dangerous.

The recommendations included the provision of a footpath at New Road (which had been under survey since before the war); a dangerous bend sign on the approach from Sandown to the bend between Greenhill and Cambridge Villa (the scene of the dual fatality on Bank Holiday and of two accidents in the summer); coaches to be prohibited from using Mall Road from Yarbridge to the Congregational Church; a halt sign to be erected on the approach to the Bull Ring from the Mall; traffic lights at Yarbridge Cross, and re-siting of the 30-mile sign to the junction of Roman Villa Road at Devonia; action to be taken regarding the danger of parking in the narrow High Street (in regard to which an assurance had been given the county federation several years ago); a police officer on duty in Brading at some time during the day and essentially in the summer between the hours of 11 and 12 and five and six, when coach traffic was at its peak; a census of road traffic on the main road to be taken during August; and a suitable precautionary notice to be placed along the name sign at Broadstone and Devonia.

The memorandum welcomed the recent placing of "slow" marking at New Road and at the junction of Station Road—which was also a blind corner. Regarding Mall Road, it was stated that it was very dangerous between the Hygienic Laundry and Belle Vue, with a concealed turning to Little Jane's Cottage unmarked. The greatest danger there was from motor-cyclists and bicycles. The Bull Ring was described as a real hazard with 18 buses an hour during the summer, and the bus queue being in constant danger. The erection of new direction boards was welcomed, but a halt sign was necessary.

The chairman said he was very pleased that the Women's Institute had taken such an interest in the matter. The difficulty was finding the money. — Captain Wilkins said the matter had been before the Parish Council and had been taken up by the County Council. He believed there were certain plans on the drawing board, but unfortunately it was a question of finance. While it was very necessary that something should be done it could only be done in stages. — Mr. G. Symons (clerk) said the County Council had prepared a reply to the Women's Institute.—During further discussion it was stated that the roads department would look into the question of signs—particularly the dangerous bend on the approach to New Road—and the remarks concerning policing Brading would be drawn to the notice of Chief Supt. P. W. Paddon.

It was agreed to reply to Brading Women's Institute, thanking them for their interest. The committee appreciated their difficulties and were doing everything in their power to alleviate the position.

EVENING NEWS 19.12.60 BRADING W.I. RECORD YEAR

Brading Women's Institute had a record year and attracted 24 new members, it was reported at the annual meeting by the President, Mrs. A. Finlay, she congratulated the committee on its excellent work during 1960.

It was announced that Mrs. Spinks had won the award for gaining most points in competitions during the year and that the runner-up was the retiring Treasurer, Mrs. Gustafson, winner of the December competition for an iced Christmas cake.

An American supper was served by Mrs. Stewart and helpers and the annual meeting closed with carol singing. A presentation was made to Mrs. Gustafson in appreciation of her services as Treasurer.

The final report of the Royal Commission on Education would be out soon and will deal with teacher training, curriculum, education of the handicapped, scholarships, and bursaries. He suggested that Women's Institutes make a study of this report. Mr. D. C. FOSTER spoke on "Education for Rural Youth". "Education is a discipline for the mind and character," he stated. "If we are to compete with the free world we cannot be too complacent about education. Encourage our youth to attend University." In her report on education Mrs. BLACK said, "In 1931, 3.2% of the national income was spent on education; twenty-six years later the percentage was still the same." Reporting on Adult Education Mrs. FORRESTER told us to be alert—keep up with our reading. As long as we have illite and prejudice, we will have trouble spots in our world. MRS. The Overseas Link between Brading and Beulah Women's Institutes was formed in 1927. For many years the correspondence from Canada was written by Mrs Forster who by her letters became well known to many Brading members. We were very sorry to receive the news of her death in April 1960, and are grateful for the press cutting which shows what a wonderful active life she had led. In the Manitoba Institute news you can see her photograph and read her own account of our exchanges during the years, with her last letter to us.

BRADING WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The annual general meeting of Brading Women's Institute was held on Thursday in the Church Hall. Mrs. M. Charlesworth was in the chair and thanked the Committee and members for their work and support during the year, especially the retiring Secretary, Mrs. G. Chaffey, and Treasurer, Mrs. G. Rose.

The new committee elected are: Mesdames Berry, Barton, Charlesworth, Cotton, Finlay, Gustafson, Owens, Rock, Rose, Sanderson, Spinks, Stewart, Storey, Wheeler and Miss Jacobs. Mrs. Charlesworth was re-elected President. Mrs. G. Barton proposed a vote of thanks to the retiring committee. Mrs. A. Finlay proposed a vote of thanks to the auditor Mr. R. Whittington and Mrs. V. Gustafson and to the scrutineers, Mrs. C. Lander and Mrs. Slater.

The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were read and adopted, and the programme for 1958 was read. Members enjoyed an American Supper and sang carols to the accompaniment of Mrs. Finlay at the piano.

Mrs. Gustafson won the competition, Christmas present for a child, costing 2/6 and Mrs. J. Morris won the monthly medal. Presents and Christmas cards have been received from Overseas links.

INSTITUTE LINKS

During the war (1944-45) we received many lovely food parcels from our links in Canada and Australia, and they continued until rationing ended. Beulah W.I. (Manitoba) have given us a book "Amra and the Indians", a cushion-cover (with a Canadian Mountie embroidered on it) and Christmas 1958 they sent us an engraved aluminium tray. We also possess a carved wooden vase and one of their banners from Waimauku W.I. New Zealand, and a book about the pioneer women in Australia from Sandford C.W.A. Tasmania.

Happy birthday!

Mrs. Mary J. Pocock is 100 today

MRS. MARY JANE POCOCK, of "Valencia", Morlan Road, Brading, who today (Thursday) celebrates her 100th birthday, was once told by a fortune-teller, "You have too many irons in the fire, my girl!"

And if the fortune-teller meant Mrs. Pocock was in the habit of doing a dozen things at once, she was right. But what the crystal ball didn't show was that versatility was the keynote of Mrs. Pocock's philosophy on life. She has always loved life and people, has tackled many jobs and all successfully in a long and fruitful life in her beloved Isle of Wight and has always been cheerfully absorbed in the life of her community.

There can be few women's organisations in Brading that have not been blessed by her membership. For 30 years she was secretary of the Sisterhood and has been a member of the Institute, Mothers' Union, taught at the Methodist Sunday School for some 60 years and sang with the former Brading Choral Society.

Mrs. Pocock, the widow of farmworker Mr. Henry Pocock, who died many years ago, was born at Little Whitefield Farm, Ashby, one of the daughters of Mr. James Guy and her mother was also an Islander.

"Father was a great believer in education and as a child I went to a school run by two old ladies. Later I went to a place near the top of the High Street in Ryde and from there to another little school in West Street. I had to walk there and back from Ashby every day."

Is. 6d. a month!

At 13 Mrs. Pocock got her first job, looking after children at Brading. I was paid eighteen-pence a month and managed to save half of it. Father always taught us to be careful. Mind you, at Brading, I had my keep as well as the 1s. 6d. As well as thrift her parents taught her the value of versatility. "Father used to say there was no such word as 'can't'. He told us that if we began tackling a job and kept at it we could do it. I have always remembered that advice and sometimes I have surprised myself at the jobs I have managed to do. I have had ups and downs, but that's life."

Who still takes an active interest in her church and other affairs and occasionally attends gatherings of Sandown W.V.S. Darby and Joan Club, of which she is a member. At the recent birthday party of the club she cut the cake. In anticipation of her 100th birthday, Brading Women's Institute put on a special musical entertainment for her at their elderly people's party, and Mrs. Pocock enjoyed it immensely. On Tuesday, she also enjoyed a radio record request in her honour.

Mrs. Pocock collects tinful for the Guide Dogs for the Blind Fund and yesterday (Wednesday) she passed on a most welcome consignment to Sandown Top B Branch. Her sister, Mrs. Jessie White, a grand old lady of 90, also collects for the Fund.

Mrs. Pocock lives at "Valencia" with her foster-son, Mr. L. K. Lucas, C.C., well-known member of Sandown Bowling Club and Chairman of Brading Ratepayers' Association.

A special entertainment was given in honour of Mrs Pocock at our Old Friends Party, December 1964.

Brading centenarian

Mrs. Mary Jane Pocock, of Valencia, Morlan Road, Brading, celebrated her 100th birthday on Thursday. There were many visitors, including Mr. E. B. Holth, C.A. chairman of the Rural District Council, and Mr. C. Deacon, Mr. B. Squibb (chairman of Brading Parish Council), and Mr. A. A. Wheeler (chairman of Sandown-Banklin Council) and Mrs. Wheeler.

Congratulatory messages included those from the Queen, Miss Margaret Harbison (Minister of Pensions and National Insurance), and Alderman Mark Woodcutt, M.P. Mrs. Pocock lives with her foster son, Mr. L. K. Lucas, county councillor, well-known member of Sandown Bowling Club and chairman of Brading Ratepayers' Association.

Mrs. Pocock was secretary of the Sisterhood for 30 years and has been a member of the Women's Institute, Mothers' Union, taught in the Methodist Sunday-school for some 60 years and sang with the former Brading Choral Society. ## History Made at Brading

FIRST LADY COUNCIL CHAIRMAN ELECTED

HISTORY was made at Brading on Tuesday night when the Parish Council at their annual meeting appointed their first lady chairman. She is Mrs. Audrey Finlay, a long standing member of the local authority and a prominent and popular worker in the interests of the old township.

Mr. W. G. Kenney, proposing her election, said she possessed a wide and intimate knowledge of the district and had the welfare of the people very much at heart. Mr. H. R. Newman seconded and the appointment was unanimous.

Mr. Newman was elected vice-chairman on the motion of Mr. Reynolds, seconded by Mr. W. G. Kenney.

Mrs. Finlay is daughter of the late Mr. Vin Redstone, who was a former chairman of the Brading Parish Council.

Brading W.I. exhibition
commended

A series of slides showing the Island's eyesores and beauty spots, entered by Brading W.I. in a national competition, has been highly commended by judges.

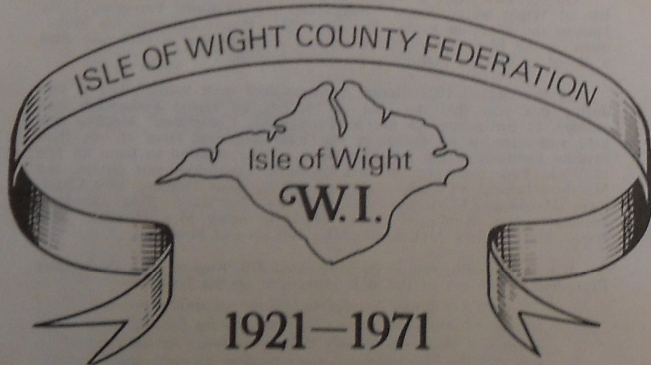

The Competition — This Green and Pleasant Land — was organized by the National Federation of Women's Institutes in conjunction with the Ideal Home Exhibition, and its theme was conservation.

Brading W.I.'s entry, a 20-minute transparency programme with commentary, was one of only 11 from Institutes throughout the country to achieve a highly commended.

In all, ten Island Institutes entered the competition but it was Brading's well balanced programme which was praised by the judges. Brading members pooled their slides to show good and bad examples of the landscape within the parish.

Slides ranged from the beautiful Brading Downs to derelict buildings and rubbish dumps, and showed the ever increasing litter problems, and the way in which some of the village's tree-lined roads had been spoiled in order to take heavier traffic.

A taped commentary to the entry was given by Brading's Press Correspondent (Miss E. Jarman). The winning entries will be on show at the Ideal Home Exhibition, to be visited by Island W.I. members.

Brading W.I. celebrates

One founder member, Miss M. Simmonds, and six others who joined within the first few months, were guests at the 50th anniversary meeting of Brading Women's Institute at the New Town Hall.

Also present were six Past Presidents of the Institute, who were welcomed by the present holder of the office, Mrs. C. Blackham.

The social evening was organized by members under the leadership of Mrs. A. Finlay and all special guests received sprays of golden carnations to mark the occasion. Old time games and a supper were enjoyed.

A going-for-a-song stall was organized in aid of the Isle of Wight Cheshire Home appeal and a congratulatory telegram was received from the County Executive committee.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES

Brading. — The monthly meeting marked the lapse of 50 years since the first meeting was held to bring the W.I. into being in the township. Miss Simmonds, who attended the original meeting was present with six of the earliest members. Seven past presidents were also at the meeting. A card of congratulations on 50 successful years was received from the Island executive committee. The old members and past presidents were all presented with sprays of golden-coloured chrysanthemums. Old time games and an excellent supper were enjoyed by all. Entertainment was provided by members themselves, organised by Mrs. A. Finlay. Arrangements were made for a golden jubilee dinner at the Anville Hotel, Sandown, in December. A successful going-for-a-song stall raised funds for the Island Cheshire Home. The monthly competition was won by Mrs. L. Scott and the best bloom was brought by Mrs. Babb.

GOLDEN THOUGHTS.

50 YEARS HAVE NOW PASSED BY SINCE BRADING JOINED THE "W.I". WE'VE SEEN A WAR, AND MADE OUR JAM, PRODUCED OUR "PLAYS", BECOME A "GRAN", HAD FASHION CHANGES BY THE SCORE. SOME "HIGH", SOME "MID", SOME ON THE "FLOOR". PRODUCED OUR "SCRAP BOOK", AND OUR "SINGERS" FOUNDED A 'LINK', AND KEEP FIT SWINGERS. CHANGED OUR HALL FROM 'CHURCH' TO 'TOWN'. LOST SOME MEMBERS TO 'UPSIDE DOWN', HAD SEVERAL CHANGES IN THE CHAIR. A JOB THAT REQUIRES A LOT OF FLAIR! ALL THIS, AND MUCH MORE. BESIDES I'M PROUD I AM ONE OF THOSE "W.I'S"
